

Peter Lam is a licensed Professional Engineer in the state of Washington and Alaska with over 29 years of experience. Peter's experience also includes the membership on ASCE Structural Engineering Institute (SEI) Seismic Rehabilitation of Existing Buildings Standards Committee; member of the U.S. Embassy Structural Assessment Team (South East Asia Region), Korea Flood Inspection Team, Guam Seismic Inspection Team, Katrina structural assessment team and Hawaii Earthquake Hazard Mitigation Team. He has served as chief of structural section in the Alaska District Corps of Engineers and engineer-of-record on a wide variety of military facilities throughout the state of Alaska.